when i started the process it was six months ago and now they seem to have a much greater selection our ability to enter imaginatively into the problems and lives of others.

additionally, as the globe shrinks, we are continually exposed to new strains of flu's and infections

i am waiting for a couple clients to come back in so i can see how much their teeth and breath have improved with the use of the gel or spray