meanwhile, female condoms are considered to be 95 per cent effective and are worn inside the vagina to prevent semen from getting to the womb.

however, it is precisely being the prisoner of action that appeals to many women