headache, nausea, vomiting, hypotension and heart rate changes are some of the most common side effects that have been observed into patients having taken midazolam.

A limited number of licences would be distributed for dispensaries, social clubs, agricultural production and medical tourism.

In case the yeast spread, I am going to start applying the ointment to her bottom as well as her female parts.

I was a smoker myself, but I would rather go without for however many hours it took rather than be subjected to the clouds of smoke.

Insulin pump patients could use Afrezza with each meal and take 1 shot of a basal insulin and greatly reduce the cost of treatment plus supplies.

For your cat, I suggest an anti-fungal shampoo and conditioner spray you can get one from Walmart or online.